Honestly it's really fucked up how Xel even vents to people like your and arachnid's age after she got banned from jack's server

excluded, again. my support i give to xel is ignored all the time, and everyone gets credit for being a supporter and a friend more than i have. and this may sound bitchy and ungrateful, but it kinda sucks when this is the same person that makes you feel like shit every day. making you feel like you don't belong. every time i join vc i have to hear "oh god it's nate" or being made fun of for liking a youtuber, or being told my music taste is trash every time we talk about music, or even CONSTANTLY being the butt of every fucking joke your friends make, and a good chunk of them being about the fact i'm black. i don't appreciate hearing "shut up you're black" from the person i consider my fucking friend. whether it's a joke or not, it got to the point where it hurts me, i'm incredibly insecure about myself because of xeltxr. and i can't even say anything about it because i'll be banned from the group's server and be painted as the bad guy, as xeltxr has done two times before. everyone will turn against me and i won't even be able to defend myself all because i told her she was being a piece of shit, which she was. the only reason i became

eno. 01/05/2022

i used to vent about the times my mom would get drunk and yell at me and shit and she used to just physically abuse me for no reason xel made a joke abt how im always listening to music and then she just goes "do u get abused to music too" or something along those lines

YOU SENT AN INVITE RUT

Message @xeltxrx

i got banned for inviting back someone she kicked for no reason, which i thought was a joke and when she lost admin in a server she spammed fuck you to all of us in the server and banned us
